

We are recruiting for International Associate Market Research Professionals

Research and knowledge-based consulting services for the entertainment content, consumer electronics and IT industries.

Futuresource Consulting is a major research and knowledge-based consulting company with a strong heritage stretching back to the 1980s. Combining strong methodologies and unsurpassed data refinement expertise with in-depth market knowledge and experienced forecasting skills, the company is a leader in its field.

We are currently seeking to expand our network of Associate Market Research Professionals who can undertake telephone research projects on our behalf, either at our Futuresource headquarters in Bedfordshire or home based across the globe. Working on an assignment basis you would contribute to our bespoke client reports.

The ideal candidates will be skilled and talented B2B research interviewers who can work independently, but also as part of a team.

You will need to have a very good command of English and be a fluent speaker in one or more of the following languages:

- Spanish
- Italian
- Japanese
- Chinese
- Russian
- Portuguese
- German
- French

We are looking for confident, hardworking and reliable individuals who have relevant documents to be eligible to work in the UK. You will be proactive and motivated, target focussed, have good oral and written communication skills and excellent telephone manner.
